

Note on this: This is a tentative schedule. Sections and presentations are subject to move and additional spaces may be added.

2015 Psychosocial Workshop Preliminary Agenda

Tuesday, April 28, 2015

8:15-8:45 Registration: coffee/tea and light breakfast fare

8:45-9:00 Opening and Introductions

9:00-9:45 Abortion providers and services

1. Expanding Access to Safe Abortion Services in Rwanda: Building on initial efforts to improve services, Ashley Fraser
2. "No te puedo acompañar": gynecologist decision-making regarding conscientious objection to abortion provision in Montevideo, Uruguay, Bethany Kotlar:
3. Knowledge and Practice of Induced Abortion among Gynecologists in Uruguay, Yonah EtShalom
4. Conscientious objection to abortion provision in Bogota, Colombia: religion, respect, and referral, Lauren Fink
5. Determinants of Physician Abortion Provision in Colombia, Kaitlyn Stanhope
6. Measuring abortion stigma in the African context: Findings from Ghana, Zambia, Kenya and Uganda, Kristen Shellenberg
7. The Impact of Emotions on Online Engagement with Abortion Rights Organizing, Amanda Stevenson

9:45-10:45 Putting the "s" back into SRH: sexuality and family planning

1. "A pregnancy couldn't 'accidentally' happen to us": How young adult women make sense of IUDs and implants in light of relationships, sexuality, and pregnancy ambivalence, Jenny Higgins
2. Pregnancy intentions, Pregnancy Outcomes, and Sexual Satisfaction, Julia McQuillan
3. Sexual Orientation Disparities in Unintended Pregnancy and Birth Outcomes: Resilience or Invisible Reproduction, Bethany Everett
4. Sexual Satisfaction and Contraception, Jessica Sanders
5. Sexual Side Effects of Contraception: Reasons for Discontinuation, Nicole K. Smith
6. What do people think they know about what they know about sexual and reproductive health: results from an online survey, Danielle Besset
7. Excluding Planned Parenthood from Texas' Medicaid waiver program: Impact on method mix and women served, Amanda Stevenson
8. How are Texas women's family planning needs being met? First results from a statewide online survey, Catherine E Hendrick
9. Advancing reproductive stigma research: new tools, new findings, AbiSamra
10. Society for Family Planning Social Research Fund, Susan Higginbotham

10:45-11:15 Break

11:15-11:40 Abortion Decision Making

1. Abortion Decision-Making: A micro and macro conceptual framework, Ann Moore
2. Survey Development to Understand Care-Seeking Experiences of Women Accessing Abortion Services, Judy Margo
3. Contraceptive decision making in a context of chronic uncertainty, Alison Norris
4. Ghanaian women and their choice to self-induce abortion, Sarah Rominski
5. Women's Self-use of Abortion, Francine Coeytaux

11:40-12:00 Family planning infrastructure and technologies

1. Access to High-Quality Pharmacies -- Differences by Race, Class, and Geographic Location, Jennifer Barber
2. Awareness and provision of the newest EC method, ulipristal acetate (UPA, trade name ella), Kelly Cleland
3. Is there need for new contraceptive technologies: interpreting demand estimates, acceptability data and willingness to pay for information, John Townsend
4. mHealth to support postabortion contraceptive use in Bangladesh, Erin Pearson

12:00-12:15 What ARE those people doing?: Funding through the NICHD, Susan Newcomer

12:15-1:30 Lunch (on your own)

1:30-2:00 Adolescent sexual and reproductive health and lives

1. Stigma Management and Sexual Health Risks Among Sexual Minority Adolescent Girls, Bethany Everett
2. A Mixed-Method Exploration of STI and Pregnancy Risk Evaluation Among Homeless Youth, David Kennedy
3. Competing Priorities: Pregnancy and Disease Prevention among Young Adults, S. Marie Harvey
4. Contextual influences on sexual health among Mexican American teens in an agricultural community, Alexandra Minnis
5. Social consequences of adolescent pregnancy in Ghana, Kelli Hall

2:30-3:00 Adolescent contraceptive use

1. "Adolescent knowledge and use of contraceptive methods: Mexico 1992-2012", Blair Darney
2. Sexuality and Contraceptive Use in the Transition to Adulthood: Norms, Behaviors, and Strategies, Laurie James-Hawkins
3. Barriers and Facilitators of Contraceptive Use among Young People in Manila, Philippines, Kristi Allen
4. Young women's experiences of provider influence and bias regarding IUDs and implants, Jenny Higgins

3:00-4:00 Joe Potter Keynote Address: Contraception on either side of the US-Mexico Border

4:00-5:00 Findings from a 5-year R01, “Advancing Research on the Consequences of Unintended Childbearing

The four researchers on the panel have collaborated on multiple, related projects to explore and advance our understanding of a) the measurement of unintended pregnancy; b) the methods used to investigate its impact on behaviors and health outcomes; c) a wider array of consequences of unintended childbearing; and d) the ways in which women and men themselves talk about and experience consequences. The panel will be an integrated presentation of this body of work, drawing on findings from our published and (currently) unpublished work

1. TBD, Kathryn Kost
2. TBD, Laura Lindberg
3. TBD, Megan Kavanaugh
4. TBD, Isaac Maddow-Zimet

6:15 Dinner: Restaurant within walking distance, Bandar

Wednesday, April 29, 2015

8:00-9:00: US abortion restrictions: Panel Discussion

1. Evaluating the impact of Ohio’s law mandating use of the FDA-approved protocol for medication abortion, Ushma Upadhyay
2. An Assessment of the Challenges for Practice and Creative Opportunities for Recruitment and Retention for Abortion Providers in the Southern United States, Pari Chowdhary
3. A mixed-method evaluation of abortion restrictions in Texas: assessing the effect on women and providers, Texas Policy Evaluation Project, Liza Fuentes
4. Prenatal care recruitment: an innovative method to evaluate abortion restrictions, Rebecca Kriz

9:00-9:30: Break and Coffee

9:30-10:30: Tribute to Rennie Miller

10:30-11:00 Family planning policies and programs

1. Quality of family planning services in Mexico: what are we measuring?, Blair Darney
2. Siempre me critican: Barriers to Reproductive Health in Ocotal, Nicaragua, Samantha Luffy
3. Consequences of one child policy, Toni Falbo
4. Second trimester/late abortion access--clinical, policy and advocacy issues , Kelly Blanchard
5. Experiences of women denied abortion in the US and abroad, Diana Greene Foster
6. Barriers to providing vasectomy at publicly funded family planning clinics in Texas, Kari White

11:00-12:00 Marriage, migration and social stratification

1. Who marries whom: Marriage, Ethnicity and Religion in Indonesia., Ariane Utomo
2. Union Status and Female and Male Contraceptive Sterilization in the United States, Mieke Eeckhaut
3. Estimates of the population at risk for Female Genital Mutilation/Cutting in the United States, Howard Goldberg
4. Update on the Cebu Social Context and Fertility project, Jessica Gipson
5. Migration and Family Planning in Myanmar, May Sudhinaraset
6. Characteristics of women who have legal abortions: levels and trends across countries, Gilda Sedgh
7. Does Stratified Reproduction also mean Stratified Sexual Satisfaction?, Julia McQuillan, Stacy Tiemeyer, Larry Gibbs
8. TBD, Paulette Cha

12:00-1:00 pm Lunch (on your own)*1:00-2:00 pm Contraceptive Decision Making

1. TBD, Corinne Rocca
2. Using Cognitive Dissonance Theory to Examine Contraceptive Non-Use in Cebu Young Adults, Suba Narasimhan
3. Choosing a Long-Acting Reversible Contraceptive: The Changing Role of Education across the Reproductive Life Cycle, Mieke C.W. Eeckhaut
4. The biology of contraceptive decision making: preliminary research ideas, Suzanne Bell
5. Women's autonomy and contraceptive decision-making: LARC methods, Cynthia Harper
6. TBD, Lauren Ralph
7. Diverging trajectories educational and employment aspirations and expectations among adolescents in Ghana, Bart Bingenheimer
8. Community college students interest in and use of LARC, Kristine Hopkins
9. How does social communication influence use of IUDs, Christine Dehlendorf
10. Risk aversion, temporal preferences and contraceptive decision making, Deborah Karasek

2:00-2:30 Changing attitudes to gender roles and shifting demographics

1. Remaining childless in Poland. A qualitative study, Monika Mynarska
2. Becoming Adults, Becoming Women: Gender Roles and Contraceptive
3. Risk-Taking in the Hookup Culture, Laurie James-Hawkins
4. Access to sex-selective technology and abortion in India: changing policy landscape and new methods for data collection, Nadia Diamond-Smith

2:30-3:00 Studies on pregnancy intention

1. A moving target? A prospective study of U.S. women's pregnancy intentions and attitudes over a 12-month time period, Rachel Jones

2. A blessing I Can't Afford: Understanding the Paradox of Happiness About Unintended Pregnancy, Abigail Aiken
3. Unintended Pregnancy in Hull, England, James Trussell
4. Prevalence and determinants of contraceptive status/method(s) among women want to avoid pregnancy for the next two years or longer, Molly McCarthy
5. His children, My children, Our Children: Complexity of fertility desire in rural Uganda, Sanyukta Mathur

3:00 - 3:30 Coffee Break

3:30-4:00 Considerations and innovations in research methods

1. Faith and understanding in the analysis of demographic data, Terence Hull
2. Expanding Harm Reduction: smartphone applications for safe abortion, Caitlin Gerdt
3. More questions, more bias? An assessment of the quality of data used for direct estimation of child mortality in the DHS, Sarah Bradley
4. New methodologies for measuring illegal abortion: a pilot test of respondent driven sampling in South Africa, Caitlin Gerdt
5. A mixed method approach to assessing the impact of state-level policies on mental health outcomes and substance use risk among Latinos: Morgan Philbin

4:00-5:00 Wrap-up and planning for next year